DEVIN FINCH

Creative Director · Art Director · Cultural Strategist

Houston, TX · devinleefinch@gmail.com · https://devin-am5.pages.dev/

Hands-on creative director with 15+ years producing the work, not just directing it. Currently own the daily email design system for Polymarket, the ~$9B prediction market — alongside editorial art direction, brand systems, and video for a rotating client roster. Winner of 10+ national marketing awards (dotComm, MarCom, Hermes, AVA Digital). Range spans brand identity, editorial, broadcast-aired animation, investor decks, and culture work (Shane Gillis tour poster, Azealia Banks album cover) — with proprietary AI production infrastructure of my own design. Writing on brand psychology at Club Cabana Panic.

EXPERIENCE

Creative Director · Column Bay (own studio) / WILL Agency

Independent studio + agency practice · Sep 2025–Present · Houston, TX

— Art direction and email design for Polymarket — the ~$9B prediction market backed by the NYSE's parent company. Own the daily newsletter's visual system: all graphics and HTML for the daily email template (1.3M readers), signup-flow emails, and Substack editorial imagery.

— Art direction for The Believe! Journal — the DeVos family's 50th-anniversary media project: 53% email open rates, 165M earned-media reach (Fox News, Blaze). Lead Art Director, MAMA Magazine; quarterly visual worlds and weekly video/carousel output; Galvanick DoD pitch video end-to-end.

— Built proprietary AI production infrastructure (BLACK MASS) compressing weeks of campaign and editorial asset generation into hours of directed output.

Director of Marketing & Creative · Allthenticate

Venture-backed cybersecurity startup · Jun 2023–Oct 2025

— Owned brand, marketing, and creative end-to-end. Led full rebrand and repositioning — from scattered physical-access-control vendor to credible cybersecurity/authentication brand now spoken of alongside Microsoft and Google Authenticator; investors including Ping Identity credited the transformation.

— Grew web traffic from ~300 to 10,000–15,000 monthly visitors via paid campaigns (Meta, X, Reddit), a five-pillar SEO content system that delivered the company's first organic reach, and analytics infrastructure built from zero (pixel tracking, Snitcher, Hotjar, Supermetrics dashboards).

— Designed and copywrote the investor pitch deck for a successful $3M seed extension. Identified higher-education as a top-converting segment from analytics and drove entry into EDUCAUSE — one of the company's strongest addressable markets.

— Directed the complete mobile app visual redesign (UX/UI system, onboarding, splash screens) including the patented Rescue Missions device-recovery feature. Produced promo videos, RSA launch video with 3D title sequences, and trade show collateral.

Creative Director · Proxima Clinical Research

Medtech/biotech CRO — led creative team · 2021–2023

— Led full-scale rebrand and new visual quality standards across RFPs, presentations, web, and social — earning 10+ awards from dotComm, MarCom, Hermes Creative, and AVA Digital, and a measurable competitive edge in bid presentations.

— Built complete brand systems for two spin-outs: M1 MedTech accelerator (logo, typography, standards, collateral) and the Inventing Tomorrow podcast. Taught branding workshops to medtech/biotech executives, contributing to rebrands and successful raises for 5+ startups.

Senior Graphic Designer · Waste Management

Fortune 500 — environmental/industrial services · 2021

— Designed mobile app UI (including weather-alert system) and headquarters display UI for internal communications.
